

RECOGNIZING HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Introductory Training for Local Government Workers

If you perform your duties in or near:

Homes | Businesses | Public Spaces | Waiting Rooms

If your duties include:

First Responders | Inspections | Solid Waste Management
Code Enforcement | Libraries | Public Health

This 90-minute introductory training is for ANY local government staff or individuals working in proximity with the public or in public spaces. Training will provide basic information about the indicators of sex and labor trafficking and resources for you to share with colleagues.

This session will be presented by Margaret Henderson of The School of Government, UNC-Chapel Hill and Chelsea Cummings of Our VOICE Rape Crisis & Prevention Center.

Thursday, May 2, 2019

2 - 3:30 pm

Land of Sky Regional Council

339 New Leicester Hwy., Suite 140, Asheville

RSVP by April 29 to Zia at zia@landofsky.org or call 828.251.6622.

For background information, download the free SOG publication, "Exploring the Intersections between Local Governments and Human Trafficking: The Local Government Focus Group Project," available at www.sog.unc.edu.

Training provided by:

Hosted by:

About this training:

Training will focus on the basic indicators of sex and labor trafficking. This training is not intended to address skill development for those who are likely to have direct contact with trafficking victims, such as law enforcement and social services staff, although they are welcome to attend, too.